

Silvensa

The whole Silvensa team is wishing you a very merry Xmas, and happy holidays, we hope you are enjoying those special days with friends, family, books or movies or whatever feels good and make you happy in this festive end of year!

Psst, it's a secret, but... there's a host city for Silvensa 2020! Be patient and stay tuned, we will reveal more details soon...

...and maybe there will be a Silvensa puzzle on www.silvensa.org in the next days.

If you want to go join us in Marseille spontaneously, there are some free beds in a four bedroom in the main venue, which somebody booked accidentally. Interested? Please get in touch with us.
