

Silvensa

Dear Silvensa Lovers,

Aphrodites, the goddess of love herself, is inviting you to a very special activity:

A speed dating

And as she knows that one speed dating is not enough for some of you she decided to allow 2 sessions to find new people to talk, play, have dinner, and maybe date with....

She sent all the power of her love to a team of Cupids, who will guide you during the sessions and will make things go smoothly. They are also bringing you some cute heart stickers to put on your nametags

You think you are too shy? Or you have never been to a speed dating before?

Don't worry and give yourself a chance for love and friendship by registering on the website in one of the sessions.
